Fall Clearance — limited quantities! 2014 Photonics Buyers' Guide

If you buy photonics products, you need the Photonics Buyers' Guide.

Considered the standard reference of the photonics industry since its first printing in 1954, the Photonics Buyers' Guide offers engineers, designers and buyers quick, easy access to information about companies and products in all segments of the industry worldwide.

The 60th anniversary edition includes a special 24-page timeline section — photon by photon — which chronicles six decades of building an industry on advances in light science.

"I think you folks provide an excellent source of information, the completeness of which astounds me. This is truly a most valuable source."
- a satisfied subscriber

Over 750 pages of vital photonics information!

- 4000 companies listed worldwide
- Complete corporate profiles and contact info
- 100% updated annually
- Indexed alphabetically, geographically and by products and services offered
