Making Innovation Faster: 7 Lessons from Luminate on Building Effective Accelerators for Optics Entrepreneurs

All entrepreneurs face obstacles moving a product from lab to launch. Companies developing optics, photonics, and imaging (OPI) technologies face additional challenges often not addressed by accelerators. Luminate was founded in Rochester, NY to meet the unique needs of OPI startups. Requirements for an effective OPI accelerator as identified by Luminate include access to a fully stocked OPI lab and in-house technician support, regular interaction with mentors, and exposure to investors.
