Spectroradiometer Workstation For Photobiological Safety Standard IEC 62471 Compliance Measurements

Optronic Laboratories, Inc. has developed an IEC 62471 workstation designed using our modular OL 750 Series Spectroradiometer that facilitates straight forward assembly, seamless measurement scans, and simple transitions from one measurement geometry to another. This paper will describe the IEC 62471 standard and discuss how the OL 750D IEC 62471 Spectroradiometric Workstation can facilitate standard compliance for quality control laboratories and LED manufacturers alike.
