PHOTONICS MEDIA
NEWS

On Light Matters, the photonics industry's weekly newscast from Photonics Media, we're looking at light in a whole new way — with a new look, new contributors and a fresh new focus on delivering stories about light that you just won't see anywhere else.

Healing Light

This week we bring you a special focus on light and medicine ahead of Photonics Media's digital conference on biophotonic imaging. The free online event will be held June 11 and features speakers from around the world on topics from photoacoustics to lens-free microscopy. Tune in for a sneak preview of the conference, and visit photonics.com/webinars to register.
