Light Matters

PHOTONICS MEDIA
NEWS

On this month's show we cap the International Year of Light by taking you inside an effort to get girls interested in careers in photonics. We also find out about some creative ideas for lowering energy bills by helping solar cells soak up more sunlight. And we take a peek at a couple of novel imaging devices that could make you a smarter and safer shopper.

Check out Light Matters – the industry's premier monthly newscast!
